

Lesson	Detail	Outcome	National Curriculum links
1: House Drawing	Children draw a house from observation; interpreting the details accurately and drawing what they see rather than what they think it looks like.	 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve their mastery of art and design techniques, including drawing. • Create sketchbooks to record their observations.
2: House Monoprints	Based on a section of their drawing from Lesson 1, children create a dramatic monoprint using ink.	   	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop their techniques, including their control and their use of materials, with creativity, experimentation and an increasing awareness of different kinds of art, craft and design. • Improve their mastery of art and design techniques.
3: Hundertwasser House	Inspired by the work of Hundertwasser, children add vibrant colours to an image of a house.	 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop their techniques, including their control and their use of materials, with creativity, experimentation and an increasing awareness of different kinds of art, craft and design. • Create sketchbooks to record their observations and use them to review and revisit ideas. • Learn about great artists, architects and designers in history.
4: Be an Architect	Children design a building, choosing whether to draw either a perspective view, plan view or a front elevation of their original house design.	 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop their techniques, including their control and their use of materials, with creativity, experimentation and an increasing awareness of different kinds of art, craft and design. • Create sketchbooks to record their observations and use them to review and revisit ideas. • Learn about great artists, architects and designers in history.

Lesson	Detail	Outcome	National Curriculum links
5: Monument	After learning about what monuments are, children design their own to reflect something they want to commemorate.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve their mastery of art and design techniques, including drawing, painting and sculpture. • A three-dimensional piece of artwork. • Create sketchbooks to record their observations and use them to review and revisit ideas. • Learn about great artists, architects and designers in history.