

Why should you be careful about the photos you put online?

---

Who should you allow to see your information and photos online?

---

---

What information tells someone where you live or go to school? (School uniform in pictures, photos of the front of your house, address or school name in your profile)

---

---

Why is it dangerous speaking to people you've never met online?

---

---

What could someone do if they had a copy of your personal photos? (Could they change them or display them somewhere else?)
