

Digital imagery

Camera	A device used to take, or record, pictures of people and objects.
Crop	When you change the height, width or both of an image.
Delete	To remove files from a computer such as images or videos.
Download	To save a file from the internet or another computer.
Drag and drop	To move and place a file or other items on a computer.
Editing software	Any software program, which lets you change an image or video in any way.
Image	A picture of people or objects.
Import	To receive information into one program from another.
Photo	The making of a image by the use of a camera.
Resize	To change the height and width of an object.
Save as	Lets you name and store a file on a computer.
Search engine	A website which lets you search for information on the internet.
Sequencing	A set order or pattern for something to follow.
Smart device	An electronic device, connected to other devices or the internet.
Storage space	A place for keeping information for future use.
Visual effects	The process where images are created or changed.

Key facts

An example of a sequence: egg-hatching

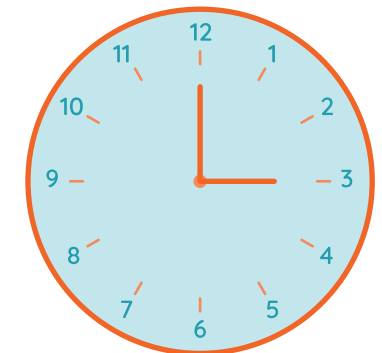

Different types of camera:

Digital clock

Analogue clock

Good photograph

Bad photograph

