

Name:

Date:

KS1 Quiz

Unit title: Families and relationships

1 If we meet someone who has a different type of family to ours, we should...

A ...accept that their family is different.

B ...think that it is not a real family.

C ...laugh at them.

2 If a friendship is making someone feel unhappy, what could they do?

A Keep quiet and hope things get better.

B Argue with their friend and try to make them change.

C Speak to their friend and explain how they are feeling.

3 Which of these is not true?

A Only photos help us remember people or pets.

B Having nice memories can help us feel better about loss.

C Talking about people and pets can help us feel better about loss.

4 How can we decide what job we want to do?

A Do the same job as our parents.

B Choose a job doing something that we find interesting.

C Choose a job that is right for our gender.

5 Why is having good manners important? Give an example.