Name: Date: Unit title: Stuffed toys 1 What is a fastening? A Something that protects fabric from the weather. B The row of stitches from beginning to end. C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy? A Wood.
Unit title: Stuffed toys What is a fastening? A Something that protects fabric from the weather. B The row of stitches from beginning to end. C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
A Something that protects fabric from the weather. B The row of stitches from beginning to end. C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
A Something that protects fabric from the weather. B The row of stitches from beginning to end. C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
B The row of stitches from beginning to end. C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
C Something that holds two pieces of material together. D A pocket. 2 What is fabric? A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
 A pocket. What is fabric? A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 What is fabric? A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 A A liquid when hot and a solid when freezing, used for combining different ingredients. B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
B A natural material that is manufactured from tree bark. C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
C A woven or knitted material made from plant, animal or synthetic fibres. D The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. 3 What is a template? A A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something.
 The material that soft and squishy products are made out of. What is a template? A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 What is a template? A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 A stencil to help you draw the same shape on materials. B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
 B A box of materials and equipment for a task. C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
C A sheet of paper. D A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
A step-by-step set of instructions to assemble something. 4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
4 Which has been used to fill this soft toy?
A Wood
A Wood.
B Glass.
C Plasticine.
Stuffing.
What is a blanket stitch used for?
A To attach decorative patches to clothing.
B To reinforce the edges of a fabric material or join two pieces.
To sew fine details into fabric characters.
To sew fine details into fabric characters.To fix other materials such as metal to fabric.

No	ıme:			Date:	Date:				VC2 O
Unit title: Stuffed toys KS2 Quiz
6	Which	picture show		7 Which picture show			vs cross-sti	s cross-stitch?
	Α	В	С	D		Α	В	С	D
8	Which picture shows a blanket stitch?
	•	A		В	С			D
9	What do we mean by an object's form?
Α	The smell of an object.
В	The look of an object.
С	The shape of an object.
D	The materials of an object.
10	Explain how one of the characters shown were made.									