

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Formal elements of art

1 What is a motif?

- A A symbol or shape that is used repeatedly to make patterns.
- B An artist's shirt they wear when painting.
- C A type of drawing material.
- D A pattern.

2 2D shapes:

- A Have no height.
- B Have no width.
- C Have no depth.
- D Have no idea.

3 A black, crumbly drawing material is called:

- A Indian ink.
- B Charcoal.
- C Black poster paint.
- D Soot.

4 What is abstract art?

- A Art that was made before the Second World War.
- B Art that represents objects and living things.
- C Art that does not represent objects or living things.
- D Art that does not have a title.

5 What is a reflection?

- A Any image that is made with sunlight.
- B Any image that is made by a camera.
- C An image of a mirror.
- D An image produced as if made by a mirror.

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Formal elements of art

6 What does the word 'symmetrical' mean?

- A Something that is different on both sides.
- B Something that reads two ways.
- C Something that is the same on both sides.
- D Something that reads from top to bottom.

7 In art and design, what is a stamp?

- A A carved piece of wood or other material used to print things.
- B A carved piece of cloth used for making clothes.
- C A carved piece of wood on a piece of furniture.
- D A carved piece of plastic used to make signs.

8 What is a compass used for?

- A To draw shapes on a computer.
- B To draw abstract things.
- C To draw circles and arcs.
- D To draw straight lines.

9 Which of these best describes the word 'texture'?

- A The way something sounds when you strike it.
- B The way something smells.
- C The way something tastes when you eat it.
- D The way something feels when you touch it.

10 Write a sentence to describe the kind of abstract marks you would make to represent broken glass. Use the words to help you.