

Name:

Date:

KS1 Quiz

Unit title: Families and relationships

1 If we meet someone who has a different family to ours, we should...

A ...accept that their family is different.

B ...think that it is not a real family.

C ...laugh at them.

2 Which of these is not a good friend?

A Someone who likes the same things as you and is funny.

B Someone who finds it difficult to share but you can trust them.

C Someone who does not share and does not like the same things as you.

3 Which of these might help someone who is feeling worried or sad?

A Telling everyone that you have seen them crying.

B Asking them if they are alright.

C Not saying anything and just carrying on as normal.

4 Which of these should people do if they fall out with a friend?

A Never speak to that person again.

B Get everyone else to stop speaking to them.

C Talk about the problem.

5 Write or draw a way of showing good manners.