

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Advanced rhythms

1 What is the Kodaly method?

- A A method of teaching music through listening, singing, moving and dancing.
- B A method of teaching music through reading and writing.
- C A method of teaching music through notations.
- D A way of singing.

2 Which of the following is worth two beats?

- A Crotchet.
- B Quaver.
- C Crotchet rest.
- D Minim.

3 What is a crotchet rest?

- A It is where the sound is loud for one beat.
- B It is where there is no sound for one beat.
- C It is where there is no sound for two beats.
- D It is where the sound is loud for two beats.

4 In music, what does it mean when music is played in 'canon'?

- A When a piece of music is on loop.
- B When a piece of music (or person) is very loud.
- C When a piece of music is imitated (one or more times) after a short delay.
- D A large weapon primarily used in the 19th century.

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Advanced rhythms

5 'Ti-ti' is the rhythm name for which musical note?

- A Crotchet.
- B Quaver.
- C Minim.
- D Crotchet rest.

6 Playing notes at the same time and pitch is known as:

- A Playing in canon.
- B Playing in tune.
- C Playing in unison.
- D Playing in melody.

7 Which piece of music did Steve Reich compose in 1972?

- A Clapping music.
- B Stomping music.
- C Quiet music.
- D Bashing music.

8 What is staff notation?

- A Writing music down using pictures or symbols.
- B Singing music.
- C Writing music down more formally as notes on staves.
- D Writing music down in full sentences.