

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Body and tuned percussion (Rainforests)

1 What is an 'arch shaped' musical structure?

- A A structure that starts at a climax and gently peters out.
- B A structure that starts gently and works towards a climax at the end.
- C A structure that starts and ends gently with the climax in the middle.
- D A structure that starts and ends with a climax.

2 The texture of a piece of music refers to:

- A The different layers.
- B The volume of the music.
- C The number of high and low notes.
- D The speed of the music.

3 What is 'body percussion'?

- A A drum made in the shape of a person.
- B Taping percussion instruments to your body.
- C A type of woodwind instrument.
- D Using your body to play sounds.

4 How did we use the dimensions of music in each layer?

- A To create contrast.
- B To make our music interesting.
- C To represent the different animals and plants.
- D To show movement.

5 What is a 'loop' in music?

- A A type of instrument.
- B A section of music that keeps changing.
- C A section of music that keeps repeating.
- D A way of writing music down.

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Body and tuned percussion (Rainforests)

6 In this topic we created a:

- A Tempo loop.
- B Melody loop.
- C Rhythm loop.
- D Dynamics loop.

7 The dimension we used to organise our music is:

- A Tempo.
- B Dynamics.
- C Timbre.
- D Structure.

8 What rhythm would be suitable for the understory of a rainforest?

- A Fast, simple, loud.
- B Slow, quiet, light.
- C Quick, quiet, light.
- D Slow, simple, low.