

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Just how important are our beliefs?

1 Why do some people take part in baby welcoming ceremonies? (Choose two.)

- A To celebrate the birth of a child.
- B To mark the baby's entry into a religious tradition.
- C Because it is a legal requirement.
- D As a birthday celebration.

2 How can a person's diet express their beliefs?

- A By following dietary laws linked to their religion.
- B To follow the latest food trends.
- C Because of food allergies.
- D Due to personal taste preferences.

3 Does someone who wears a head covering believe in God?

- A No, it is always a personal fashion statement.
- B Yes, it is always for religious reasons.
- C Only if it is a specific colour.
- D Sometimes, it is impossible to know why someone is wearing one.

4 Why might someone choose not to express their beliefs outwardly? (Choose two.)

- A They might not have any beliefs.
- B They do not want to.
- C They are private about their beliefs.
- D They might not know how to express their beliefs outwardly..

5 What is fasting?

- A Eating more than usual.
- B Skipping breakfast.
- C Eating only fruits and vegetables.
- D Not eating or drinking for a period of time.

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Just how important are our beliefs?

6 What might someone sacrifice for their beliefs? (Choose one.)

- A Their favourite food.
- B Anything that is important or valuable to them.
- C Time and money.
- D Their life.

7 Why are some ceremonies of commitment carried out by young people?

- A To formally join their religious community.
- B To mark the start of them being responsible for their own choices and actions.
- C Because it is a family tradition.
- D All of the above.

8 What are a person's core beliefs?

- A Beliefs, values and ideas that are very important to them.
- B Their favourite things.
- C What they believed when they were young.
- D Ideas and opinions they think are interesting.

9 Why do some people choose to sacrifice their time and money? (Choose one.)

- A To support causes they care about.
- B Because it is part of the key teachings of their religion.
- C For many different, personal reasons.
- D Because the law tells them to.

10 Does someone have to take part in a ceremony of commitment to have strong beliefs?

[Write the answer in your book or on the back of this sheet.]