

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Is scripture central to religion?

1 What is scripture?

- A Places of worship.
- B Scrolls.
- C Religious or sacred texts.
- D Prayers.

2 Why is the Qur'an put in a high place by many people who follow a Muslim worldview?

- A To prevent it from getting dusty.
- B To show respect.
- C To make space for other scripture.
- D It looks nice that way.

3 How can you tell if a person thinks scripture is important?

- A By how often they read it.
- B By which religious worldview they say they are part of.
- C By how much money they spend on it.
- D By asking them.

4 Which of these is opinion or belief?

- A The earliest Buddhist scripture was the Pali Canon.
- B The Guru Granth Sahib has 1,430 pages.
- C The Vedas are the earliest Hindu texts.
- D Some Hindu texts are divine.

5 Some religions believe that scriptures help people to...

- A ...connect with God.
- B ...understand why we are here.
- C ...know how to live their life as a good person.
- D All of the above.

Name:

Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Is scripture central to religion?

6 Why do some Muslims use the Hadith?

- A To communicate with Allah.
- B To learn more about themselves.
- C To forget about their problems.
- D To help them behave like the Prophet Muhammad and understand the Qur'an better.

7 Which of the following are recognised or evidenced information? (Choose two.)

- A The first Sikh scripture was kept in the Golden Temple.
- B For many Buddhists, the way they live is as important as Buddhist Dharma.
- C Many Hindu texts were written in different languages.
- D Living a life inspired by the wisdom held in the Guru Granth Sahib is important to many Sikhs.

8 Why do some Sikh practices treat the Guru Granth Sahib as a person?

- A To demonstrate the belief that the scripture is a living Guru.
- B Because it was written by a person.
- C It is a traditional way to show respect.
- D To gain rewards from Waheguru (God).

9 Why might two people understand a religious scripture in different ways?

- A They read it at different times of day.
- B Their beliefs and experiences affect how they understand it.
- C All scriptures are easy to understand the same way.
- D They read it in different languages.

10 Why does not everyone agree on whether a text is sacred?

[Write the answer in your book or on the back of this sheet.]